

2009-2010 Dependent Student Verification

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." The Federal Government requires that JSC collect the information on this form and you must return it with the required Federal Tax Returns including all Schedules with W-2's and/or earnings statements to the Office of Financial Aid at the address below. If there are differences between your application information and financial documents, we will send the corrections electronically to the Federal Processor. You will then receive a corrected Student Aid Report (SAR). Incomplete or unreturned forms may delay or result in the cancellation of your financial aid.
