

Journalism Sampler

Selected Reference Sources in Print

(Latest editions are at the Reference Desk.)

Gale Directory of Publications and Broadcast Media R/016.071/G131/Year

Literary Market Place R/070.5025/L712/Year

National Survey of State Laws R/349.73/N213/Year

Statistical Abstract of the United States R/317.3/Un3s/Year

United States Government Manual R/353/Un3/Year

World Almanac and Book of Facts R/317.3/W89/Year

Online Sources

JSC Library Site <http://www.jsc.edu/Library>

Databases A-Z

Academic Onefile (and Collection Subsets)

Academic Search Premier

CQ Researcher

Lexis Nexis Academic

Lexis Nexis Congressional

New York Times Historical

Opposing Viewpoints in Context

Databases by Subject

Education, Government Resources, Law and Legislation, Vermont, etc.

Web Sites

Government Sources

Census Bureau <http://www.census.gov>

Congressional Research Services Reports <http://openocrs.com>

USA.gov: Government Made Easy... <http://www.usa.gov> (Formerly FirstGov)

Tools

FactCheck.org (Annenberg Public Policy Center) <http://www.factcheck.org/>

iWatch News (Center for Public Integrity) <http://www.iwatchnews.org/>

Journalism.org <http://journalism.org>

Journalist's Toolbox <http://www.journaliststoolbox.org/>

Pew Research Center <http://pewresearch.org/>

Poynter. <http://www.poynter.org>

Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press <http://www.rcfp.org/index.php>

Journalism.doc/lnk/Fall 2011