Indexes and Abstracts

*Education Resource Complete

This resource, which is not to be confused with ERIC, the Education Resources Information Center, boasts indexing of almost 3000 journals, plus the content of books and conference papers.

ERIC

The Education Resources Information Center remains an essential source for education research. Although several enhancements have improved the "free" version of ERIC on the Web, we think the features of our subscription-based ERIC will streamline access to journals as well as documents in full text. Our new EBSCO interface includes an interlibrary loan request form when materials are not in full text online.

PsycINFO 1887-- (Psychological Abstracts)

Find indexing for book chapters, dissertations and journal articles in the foremost indexing service for the literature in psychology and related fields. There are links to full text of over 500 journal titles in the Psychology & Behavioral Sciences Collection. For materials not available in the JSC print collection or in full text, you may submit interlibrary loan requests online in this database.
