2014-2015 Independent Student Verification of Child Support Paid

Your application was selected for review in a process called “verification”. The federal government requires that JSC collect the information on this form and you must return this form to the Office of Financial Aid at the address below or it can be faxed at 802-635-1463. If there are differences between your FAFSA and information you provide on this form, we will send the corrections electronically to the federal processor. You will then receive a corrected Student Aid Report (SAR). Due to availability of funding, incomplete or delays in providing this information may result in the cancellation or reduction of your financial aid.
